Claims Call Center

The path of Hurricane Ian is expected to cross Florida and approach the South Carolina Coast as a Tropical Storm. Current forecasts call for strong winds and rainfall of up to six to ten inches and moderate risk for flash flooding.

Be aware that storms can strengthen with little notice.

Coastal consumers and insurance producers should take steps to protect their property and family members.

You can contact the Association at:

- Claims – claims@scwind.com
- Underwriting – und@scwind.com

Claims should be reported 24/7 via the Producer Portal or via the toll-free number above.
